Missionary Moment for April

In the late 1800's women were not expected to be leaders, to speak up, to be visionaries...Annie Armstrong was never concerned with what the world expected. In 1888, the national Woman's Missionary Union® (WMU) was formed. Annie was elected as the first executive leader. She was instrumental in starting the Home Mission Board (now North American Mission Board) and Foreign Mission Board (now International Mission Board) in taking the gospel around the globe. Your prayers and financial support are critical provisions for our missionaries. You may designate your Easter missions offering for the Southern Baptist Convention, Cooperative Baptist Fellowship, or the Baptist World Alliance.

Doxology            Praise God from whom all blessings flow.
                          Praise Him all creatures here below.
                          Praise Him above, ye heavenly hosts.
                          Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Special Music                            “On Eagle’s Wings”
  Tom Ball, Laura Cooper, Duet

WE WORSHIP THROUGH PROCLAMATION

Sermon                    “When Christ Shall Come”            Rev. Dr. Roger Collier

WE WORSHIP THROUGH COMMITMENT & DISCIPLESHIP

Invitation for Commitment

Hymn #280                    “Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross”            NEAR THE CROSS

Benediction

Closing Hymn                    “Let Us Now Depart in Thy Peace”            A LA PUERTA

Let us now depart in thy peace, blessed Jesus.
Send us to our homes with God's love in our hearts.
Let not the busy world claim all our loyalties.
Keep us ever mindful, dear Lord, of thee.

Historical Homecoming Worship Service, Sunday, April 29. “Here is the church. Here is the steeple. Open the doors! Join our worship service on Sunday, April 29th for a multi-media event highlighting the growth of our church through time and the rich legacy left behind by so many of its occupants.

You can make these early and I can freeze them, as they thaw just fine. Chocolate Chip, Peanut Butter, Sugar, or Snickerdoodles are all on the approved list. Please no cookies with large chunks of candy, frosting, or sugar coating. ## Notes from the Past:

The person standing to the left in this close-up of some early members of GABC is Mordecai John "Mock" Gayle, born March 10, 1826. On March 9, 1848, at age 22, Mordecai Gayle married America Virginia Broaddus, when she was 15, and together they had 15 children.

During the Civil War, Mordecai served as a Confederate soldier and member of Company F. "Mosby's Battalion" under Colonel John Singleton Mosby (1833-1916), the "Grey Ghost." Official title of his unit: Company F. 43rd Battalion Partisan Cavalry, Dept. of Northern Virginia, C.S.A. The story of these partisans has gone on to become legend- they were tough, daring and the bravest of the brave. Mordecai told his grandchildren that he "killed as many of them (Yankees) as they killed of me."

Mordecai and "Ginny" were founding members of Glen Allen Baptist Church in 1868.

According to descendants, Ginny was a tiny, lively, sweet and loving person and her grandchildren loved to have her come visit because she always had goodies, lemon and peppermint stick candy in her apron pocket.

Mordecai died on October 3, 1902 and Ginny on July 10, 1910 at the home of their son John B. Gayle at 2500 Floyd Avenue, in Richmond. They are buried in Riverview Cemetery, Richmond, Va.

If anyone has suggestions for a Glen Allen 'note from the past', historic picture and/or trivia, please get it to the 150th anniversary team or Church office to include in the bulletin during our 150th anniversary, Jubilee year.
