According to the CIA World Factbook, there are nearly 2 million Christians that live in Syria today. The news has discussed intense Christian persecution in the country. Following Christ in Syria is not easy. There are also foreign Christians in Syria who have chosen to place themselves knowingly under that same persecution. They give aid, encourage followers of Christ, and work to provide community to isolated Christians. Help them stay strong in the faith by praying for them as

Paul prayed for the church in Ephesus to be strengthened by God's Spirit (Eph. 3:14-19).

Offertory "Jesus Loves Me, This I Know" Arr. Kessler

Doxology Praise God from whom all blessings flow.
 Praise Him all creatures here below.
 Praise Him above, ye heavenly hosts.
 Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Anthem "Tender Lord, Precious Lord"

Tender Lord, precious Lord, walk with me, be my guide;
Tender Lord, precious Lord, ever at my side.
For all of our days on earth, led by your love,
Your child I'll always remain.
Tender Lord, precious Lord, through sunshine and storm;
Tender Lord, be the healer, my bright, blessed morn.
And through all of our days on earth, led by your love,
Your child I'll always remain.
When we walk with the Lord in the light of his world,
What a glory he sheds on our way!
While we do his good will, he abides with us still
And with all who will trust and obey.
Trust and obey, for there's no other way
To be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey.

WE WORSHIP THROUGH PROCLAMATION

Sermon "Our Own Highlight Reel" Rev. Dr. William J. Crowder

PUERTA

Let us now depart in thy peace, blessed Jesus.
Send us to our homes with God's love in our hearts.

Debbie Gordon is heading up the float for this year and help is always needed. If you are able to help with the float, please reach out to Debbie in person, or you can reach her at debbiejgordon@verizon.net or (804) 306-1995. In addition, we need volunteers to help run our booth in the vendor area. We need volunteers who are willing to work two-hour shifts during the day from the following times: 9:00 – 11:00 AM, 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM, and 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM. know each other. We need to make reservations so let me know Monday September 17 if you plan to go. Mark your calendars for the third Tuesday of each month.

Attention Men of the Church! - Imagine joining 10,000 men—fathers, sons, brothers, seekers and Christ-followers—coming together to worship God and learn more about the life of true adventure He intends for us.

Even more, imagine a two-day event packed full of workshops, exhibits, and fun around the stuff that men love: hunting, fishing, football, motorcycles, racing, extreme sports, and other outdoor activities—featuring some of the leading experts in the world.

Welcome to Ignite Men's Impact Weekend Conference! After years of perfecting our men's impact weekend, we have landed on a unique format that helps men align their everyday passions with God's eternal purpose. We are here to take on the everyday challenges that men face—a godless culture, fatherlessness, broken relationships, and the lack of male leadership in the Church. This groundbreaking, extreme weekend is scheduled for March 15-16, 2019 at Thomas Road Baptist Church in Lynchburg, Virginia.

Tickets are at its cheapest price right now at $54. They will go up in price in a couple of months. In addition, hotel rooms are disappearing fast in the Lynchburg area (I checked this morning). We have had folks go to this conference the last few years and it is an awesome experience.

Joining the stage this year will be Jeff Foxworthy, Dennis Swanberg, Rick Rigsby, Jon Gordon, and James MacDonald, along with more yet to be announced. If you are interested in going on this wonderful conference, please let B.J. know.

A big thank you to all of those who attended our trip to the Museum of the Bible. We had a group of 34 go to Washington, D.C. to see the influence the Bible has had on our culture. You could truly spend a week in this museum and not see it all!

Youth News

Youth Reunion Celebration - Save the Date – November 24—6:00 – 8:00 pm—The 150th Anniversary Team will be hosting a reunion of former youth group members November 24, 2018. The event will take place in the fellowship hall from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. All former youth group members and their families are invited to attend. Childcare will be provided. Please contact Susan Taylor at susan.sutton.taylor@gmail.com or (804) 672-6464 if you can help with this event. Please also contact Susan, the 150th Anniversary committee members or the church office with any contact information that you have for former youth. This event will be a great way to celebrate all the youth that have grown up as a part of our church.

Welcome to the Virginia State Fair! The Youth will be making an outing to the fair on Sunday, October 7th, immediately following the Worship Service. The next day is a student holiday off from school. We will enjoy a full day of fellowship and fun at the fair. They are offering reduced rates now, so if you are interested in going, please sign up with B.J. by August 30th. The cost will only be $5 per person. Each youth should plan on bringing extra money with them for food/vendor purchases. As always, we can use some chaperones to help!

The Youth Fall Retreat is right around the corner from October 19-21 in Crozet, VA at the Misty Mountain Camp Resort. We have several cabin and tent spaces reserved. This is a great trip that is always one of our more popular events of the year. The adult chaperones usually have just as much fun as our Youth. Let B.J. know if you plan to attend.

Major Nathan Harris, grandson of Kenneth Harris and son of David Harris, He is an air force pilot of the C130 (leader & instructor), stationed in Japan.

Glen Allen My Community, Part 7:

Near the bridge where Mountain Road crosses the Chickahominy River was the "Chickahominy Tavern" later called "Child's Inn". It was built of brick and had 23 rooms. The only person of note "known" to stop there. That one was Jenny Lind during her last tour of America in 1851. A very old resident, Mrs. Imogene Holladay, remembers an amusing incident connected with Jenny Lind's visit at the tavern. A negro cook, employed in the home of Mrs. Williamson (grandmother of Mrs. Holladay), gave birth to twins that night and named them Jenny and Lind.

Another noted tavern, "Walkerton Tavern", and dwelling house were built by John Walker, an Englishman who came to America and acquired a large track of land on each side of Mountain Road. The tavern is still standing on the north side of the road just east of the station. The situation of the old bar and the window where drinks were served can still be seen. On the second floor is the ball room, one side swings out to enlarge it. In the cellar is a huge fireplace with its crane, pots and kettles was where all the cooking was done. There was a wine cellar and three houses served to refresh guests. In the rear was a barn and stable to accommodate 20 horses and the stage coaches. The passengers alighted out on Mountain Road at a point just between the center cedars where a plank walkway led up to the winding steps. In 1852 this tavern was bought by the widow of Dr. George North Hopkins. The Dr. Hopkins was the grandfather of the late Dr. Erasmus Guy Hopkins who was one of the leading pathologists of the South. It has been used as the residence for the Hopkins for 75 years. The old bar and stable were burned in 1908. The other house was on the Southside of Mountain Road and used as Mr. Walker's dwelling. Both of the houses were made of brick and were similar in type. The furniture and most of the building materials were shipped from England. The dwellings of the house was bought by Colonel Thomas Burton a man of culture and wealth and used as his residence until he died in 1861. It was then occupied by A. P. Rowe (member of the House of Delegates and afterwards Mayor of Fredericksburg). It was soon burned after the Civil War. A frame house was then erected on the same foundation by Edward Sheppard and owned in succession by James Winston, Benjamin Purcell, after whom Purcell Road was named and C. C. Bowles.
