Missionary Moment for October

Operation Christmas Child is just one of the many ministries organized by Samaritan’s Purse. Bob Pierce started Samaritan’s Purse in 1970 as an emergency relief organization that would bring hope and spread the gospel to those in crisis through the work of the local church and mission agencies.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Janet Kessler has granted permission to the National Prayer Chapel to play her piano music on the “live radio” weekdays from 1-2 p.m. on 780am. Everyone is invited to tune in and listen.

GABC collected 216lbs of food for the Lamb’s Basket in August and September! Thank you so much! As the harvest season is upon us and we begin to think about the holidays ahead, please consider donations to the Lamb’s Basket that would be particularly useful at this time of year. Canned vegetables, broth, gravy, stuffing mix, pastas, and sauces are good choices for fall meal prep. Thank you for supporting this important community outreach! Mary Daniels on behalf of the Missions Committee.

Kairo Prison Ministry – Please help Tom Ball take the love of Jesus into Greensville Regional Correctional Center. Here are the following ways you can help:

- Cookies – I need a lot more cookies. 1 Dozen per quart size bag as early as possible, but no later than 10/16.
- Prayer – If you will pray anytime between noon 10/16 to 3PM on 10/21, please provide Tom your first name as he will add it to a paper prayer chain that is a powerful testimony to God’s love for these men.
- Focused Prayer – If you will sign up for a specific 30 minute prayer time slot on 10/18 from noon to 3:30 PM, as we will add your name to a prayer wheel showing the guys that someone is praying for them 24 hours a day during this event.
- Money – If you would like to sponsor a participant, it costs roughly $50. Please make checks payable to: “Kairos of VA” and in the memo line write “GRCC S-2”.

Thank you for all of your support, and if you have any questions please feel free to call me 804-814-8095.

Glen Allen Day is right around the corner! It is hard to believe that it is less than a month away. As always, we need YOUR help! On Saturday, October 20th, Glen Allen Baptist Church will participate in a couple of different parts of the program as usual. Debbie Gordon is heading up the float for this year and help is always needed. If you are able to help with the float, please reach out to Debbie in person, or you can reach her at debbiejgordon@verizon.net or (804) 306-1995. In addition, we need volunteers to help run our booth in the vendor area. We need volunteers who are willing to work two-hour shifts during the day from the following times: 9:00 – 11:00 AM, 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM, and 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM. During this time you would hand out information about the church and spread the joy of what we do here at GABC. If you are able to help during any of these shifts, please contact Matt Davidson in person, or you can reach him at matt@logomd.com or (804) 241-1152.

Alma Hunt Offering for State Missions - Please prayerfully consider a gift to state missions during the month of October. Although you may give at any time, our emphasis is through October. Alma Hunt “was a native Virginian who was known worldwide for her missions’ service and her unswerving dedication to the cause of Christ.” The Alma Hunt offering is a joint venture of the Virginia Women’s Missionary Union and the Baptist General Association of Virginia that helps fund special ministries and outreach projects not funded through regular giving. The statewide goal is $1,167,500. There are envelopes for this offering in your pack of envelopes and in the pew racks. The date on the envelopes (September 17-23) was the week of prayer for state missions, but please feel free to give at any time.

Linda Davidson on behalf of the Missions Committee

Youth News

Back by popular demand is the Tacky Light Tour on Friday, December 7th. I know this is a ways off, but we have reserved a 35 passenger bus and want to get the date on everyone's calendar. We will meet at church @ 6 PM for dinner and then jump on the bus. Santa Claus and Mrs. Claus will be at the Thompson's that night so we will have a chance to visit there along with many other locations. Last time we filled up the bus, so seats are on a first come, first serve basis. This is open to families of Youth as well! Let B.J. know if you would like to sign up.

NOTES FROM THE PAST

Memories of the old Forest Lodge, Part 2

By Debbie Dean

I recall the large, rather dusty shadowed rooms apart from the office location and the ceiling to floor windows! Being that the ceiling were so high, the windows seemed magnificent and huge, especially to a 10 or 11 year old. One room was especially appealing to me on a stormy rainy afternoon. It was somewhat smaller than others, had one elongated window and on either side were shelves of old books. How I loved to sit on the floor and try to read one of those books by the slanted light from the window. Somehow this was comforting during a thunderstorm, and I could hear the soothing sound of rain on the tin roof. Sometimes the place could be a bit scary, due to the shadows and its age, but I found it overall peaceful.

Mom dearly loved the old place and treated it kindly and respectfully. She loved to decorate the antique mantle that was directly across from her over-large wooden desk. There was a beautiful rectangular mirror edged in gold above the mantle. There over the mantle Mom would place her hand painted ceramic pheasants and pinecones in fall and a Christmas garland in December. I recall her often having a small Christmas tree there too. Forest Lodge was not far from our home and for Mom it must have been almost her second home. That's why it was a terrible blow to her when it was decided to tear it down.

I recall Mom telling me of the large mural (hand painted by an Englishman) of Captain Cussons on his white horse. This, she said, took up an entire wall. I also recall her saying Captain Cussons was good friends with Buffalo Bill and also well liked by the Indians. There were originally small lakes at the back of the old hotel and apparently Indian canoes.

I also remember once going upstairs of the old building apparently to see what was there, after hearing it was to come down. I took the stairs of a beautiful, (probably walnut or solid oak) staircase. This was located, I recall, at the far right of the front of the building, separate, further down from the offices.
